HoverCover Benefits

- Acts as a barrier against MRSA and C. diff. contamination[1]
- Highly wicking to keep patient cool and dry
- Larger size replaces overlapping multiple chux
- Stays in place to reduce leaks and wrinkles
- Low air loss mattress compatible
- Breathable/high absorbency
- Single-patient use

Info and Video

1. Independent lab testing demonstrated that the HoverCover material acts as a barrier against MRSA and C. diff contamination, helping support infection prevention efforts by protecting the mattress surface. Testing on file at HoverTech.
